mon 200 years ago. The baker in colonial garb performs every step of the baking process by hand, using two red-brick, dome-shaped ovens rebuilt from documents, drawings, and actual remains. The shop is located in the original baking room of the Raleigh Tavern Kitchen.

The Unicorn's Horn and John Carter's Store—N.

Reconstructed. The handsome and substantial brick building originally at this site was erected in 1765 by two brothers, John Carter and Dr. James Carter. John Carter operated a general store in the east portion of the building, in 1767 advertising a potpourri of wares including "ounce threads, shoe soles, Lilly's grammars, ink powder and sand boxes, saucepans, castle soap and rhenish wine," all to be sold "for ready money only." John's brother, Dr. James Carter, ran an apothecary shop in the west portion under the distinctive sign of the unicorn's horn. He advertised in this same year "Spanish licorice, Ladies sticking plaister, Greenhow's tincture for the teeth, and Mrs. Rednap's red fit drops." A third brother, Dr. William Carter, later joined Dr. James Carter at the apothecary shop and in 1779 took over the business. The building, which occupied a choice commercial location next door to the Raleigh Tavern, was destroyed by the same fire that consumed the Raleigh in 1859. Privately occupied.

Charlton House—S.

Restored. This is a typical two-story Williamsburg house, with central entrance and a chimney at each end. The simplicity of the design is relieved by enrichment of detail in the cornices and windowsill moldings. The house was associated with the Charltons, Edward and Richard. Edward, a wigmaker, occupied a shop in an excellent location next to the Raleigh Tavern. An account book that recently came to light in a Williamsburg attic gives a valuable picture of his barbering activities and shows that among his clientele were Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, George Wythe, Peyton Randolph, and many others whose names appear in this Guidebook.

The Carter Line -

The following data from the Carter Tree by R. R. Carter of Shirley on the James River added to from Generation to gen. from the family Bible Record, by Mr. Robt. Carter of Columbus Ga. and his son Mr. Thomas Michelle Carter, the tree & Bible are in possession of their descendants. It was copied by one - signed (Mrs) Amelia Co. Cutliff, Albany Ga. you can write her if you like she Sept - 1933. is a genealogist & think, certainly on her and mrs line of Carters.

Carters —

Col. John I. 1620. was the first to settle Upper Nor-fork, the founder of Corotoman, Lancaster Co. Va. member of the House of Burgesses in 1649 from Nansemond, 1754 from Lancaster Co. Va.

Member of the Colonial Council 1657-8. Commander-in-chief of forces sent against the Rappahannock Indians - Vistry man. both he & his son 1666. They built the first church where Christ Church now stands Rep. Bishop Meades Old Churches & Families

I have been to this old Church several times & have seen the old tombs etc. of John C. & his 5 wives our ancestor is one of these wives buried in Isle of Church

(2) First Carter in America

Col. John Carter born 1620 died Jan. 10-1669

~~He was married five times-~~ I copied wrong page

~~First wife Jane, dau. of Morgan Glenn~~

Page I. This record copied from a letter of Miss Amelia Cutliff of Albany Ga. Sept. 24-1733

(1) Through the kind trust of a dear friend, living in Atlanta, formerly a Miss Carter, my old neighbor & Michelle's own cousin, who sent me the Carter Tree, that has been inherited from generation to generation & remembered having seen in past yrs.

The Williamsburg line, plainly marked is the first branch from "John Carter," the first of that name, in America was John II died in 1693, married Eliz. Wormley etc. This John was half brother to Robert, called "King Carter" which no doubt accounts for his favors in public offices, however the two lines, do not unite again until the marriage of Anne Carter & Maj. John Nelson & their descendants are from both branches of the Carter Tree. It is a mamoth tree, chart about 36 x 40 ins. so finely written the magnifying glass had to be used in reading it. The branches of Robert Carter extend

③ in every direction - This tree was designed & written by R. R. Carter of Shirley and contained from Carter Bible Records (same as yours) by Mr. Robt. Carter of Columbus & his son Mr. Thos. Michelle Carter, the father of my friend, from the descendants of John Carter & Jane Michelle down giving their descendants. I am enclosing you a copy of the branch, not the tree (mercy no impossible to copy) I am also sending a copy to the Va Historical So. to put on record and thus untangle the Carter tangle there -

I am too happy to pass this date on to you & pave your way into Colonial Dames, Emmigrants So. etc. Now on with the March" for you are eligible to every thing, with all doubt removed - Many thanks for yr. invitation & membership in J. J. So to Michelle would it open indy initially; She may be able to accept later, Now has a daughter at Agnes Scott & a son ready for college next yr. so $2500 fee has to be classed as a luxury now during the "depression" - I am glad to have the name of Col. Robt Read, what was Dali of marriage If you come across that anytime, I will be glad as that was the only missing link in that

4 long line from "Royal Ancestors."

Now try to turn yr. attention to the name Michel, the name is listed as a settler of the French Huguenot settlement at Manakin-town, King Wm. Co. Va & should be found in the Huguenot Society Rich. Va as a starting point & may be all information needed to connect with Thos. Michel -

I got my Fontaine data to join the Huguenot So. of S.C. from its "Historical Collection" signed

Amelia Cutliff -

I went to Shirley years ago to see "Carter Tree" but time too limited to go through it with a magnifying glass - Bessie Britt -

CARTER FAMILY

We have been unable to identify the Francis Carter, member and officer of the Virginia Company, mentioned in Mr Rutherford's note of April 24th. We are not sure whether he himself settled in Virginia or remained in England. If the latter, can he be the Francis Carter, of St Martin in the Fields, Middlesex, Chief Clerk of His Majesty's Rolls, whose will dated 29 Sep. 1630 was proved 6 Dec. 1630 in the P.C.C. (110 Scroope). He was buried at St Martin in the Fields, in the Church, as Franciscus Carter, generosus, 15 Nov. 1630. We are not sending an abstract of the will, since a copy of Register Scroope, edited by J.H. Morrison, is doubtless in the Newberry Library. The executor was the testator's son, Edward Carter, who may be the Edward Carter, of Edmonton, co. Middlesex, Esq., whose will proved in 1682 (128 Cottle) we have already sent. At first sight Edward Carter, who died 1682, seems rather old to have been an executor in 1630, since in 1682 he had three children under 21 years of age. From his will, however, these three children appear to have been the offspring of a second marriage, and there is evidence that he also had children by a much earlier marriage, including a deceased daughter, Anne Place. Edward Carter desired to be buried in the parish Church of St Dunstan in the East, London, and from the printed register of that Church (printed up to 1654 only) we obtain the following:

Buried 24 July 1652 Samuel son of Edward Carter.

We note that the eldest son of Francis Carter was also named Samuel. The marriage of one of Francis Carter's daughters is recorded at St Michael's, Cornhill, London, 14 Feb. 1629-30 - Edward Wilson, of St Martin in the Fields, gent., and Susan Carter daughter of Francis Carter of the same, by license.

Francis Carter left property in Watford and King's Langley, Hertfordshire. It is possible that he was of the same family as the Carters of Hatfield in Hertfordshire. There is a monument in Hatfield Church for William Carter of Hatfield Woodside, Esq., Counsellor-at-Law of the Middle Temple, who died 9 Nov. 1652, and for his children Elizabeth and Robert. This William was admitted to the Middle Temple 10 Dec. 1611 as son and heir of Robert Carter. He seems to have had a brother Francis Carter, educated at Eton and Cambridge (see Venn's Alumni). Further examination of Carter wills may determine whether Francis Carter of the Virginia Company and John Carter of Upper Norfolk Co., Virginia, were of this family.

The immigrant of this family was John Carter, who, in 1649, was a member of the House of Burgesses for Upper Norfolk, and in 1654 from Lancaster county, and Commander-in-Chief of the forces sent against the Indians. He died in 1669. His first wife was Jane, daughter of Morgan Glynn, by whom he had George and Eleanor; he married, 2nd Ann daughter of Cleve Carter, by whom he had Charles and John, and by his third marriage to Sarah, daughter of Gabriel Ludlowe, he had Sarah and Robert. The Carter arms are found on a seal attached to a deed of Landon Carter 18 Sept., 1752, and they are found on the tombstone of Hon. Robert Carter at Christ Church, Lancaster; also on the tomb of Robert's wife, Judith Armistead; and also on that of the Hon. Mann Page, who died 1730, having married a daughter of the said Robert Carter.

Dear Mr. Rutherford:

Evidently our letters crossed. I returned the map but could never get down in the country to get the names, etc., of the places you wrote for. Any clippings I have sent you were published here in Norfolk Virginian Pilot, our morning paper. I talked today to one of the editors of those articles. They publish Old Homes and Historical articles nearly every Dunday. He wanted me to come down and he would go over them and try to find some of interest to you. I told him I was old and too feeble to do that, so he said he would try to do it himself but they only keep them for one year. I asked him to look for Kieling and Woodhouse places and Green House and Myers House in Norfolk, gave him your address and asked him to write you if he found any for one year back. He seemed pleased and glad to do it. His name is

Mr. H. Reid, Sunday Section
Va. Pilot

one of the Editors, the main editor is a

Mr. Mason

(not available today) I also asked him to send dates to you of anything relative to old Esps. churches in Princess Anne.

Now I shall ask a favor of you as I have been helping you out as best I could, with your ancestors in "old Virginia" and with no cost to you , but information you needed. It is very tiresome to me now as my health is very bad.

This is my request - sometime ago you wrote me that on inquiry about Carters in Williamsburg, James Riverits, they told you that one Carters were not from the same branch as Old King Carter. Well, Old King had 5 wives. I have been to his grave, read stone showing names of him and his 5 wives - we are descended from one of these wives. I really dont know which one and we have no Bible records to show that our John was 1/2 brother of King Carter (different wives but same father - so if they did not put him and his on the old tree it was because they were not on good terms - but we surely belong there . Now, Miss A melia E. Cutliff of Albany N, Y. wrote to Mrs. Lewis Chapman, Smithfield, Va., that she had her own family ~~Bible~~ Bible ages old, so she had it photostated for her. I dont know the cost - I wrote Mrs. Chapman and asked her if she thought Miss Cutliff would do it for me. I would pay all charges - she wrote back hurriedly I suppose. "I just have mine photographed for you - I wrote "I prefer Miss Cutliff to have it just like yours -- " but I have been too feeble to go into a great correspondence with her about it. Of course, you will have to give your Carter genealogy back to John Carter the son of Old John by, I think, the 2nd wife and Robt. Carter the rich and distinguished one of all was son son of 3d wife, which makes them half brothers. Now Miss Cutliff has this in her Bible so I understand. It would be great to have it, I think, for you and your daughter, she would be eligible for every Va. Society. I have seen Mrs. Olipher's Fam. chart - - - - - - covers the banquet table at the old mansion of Shirley on James River. I think I have spelled Mrs. Oliver's name wrong I believe, but I still have Olipher in my head. You would probably address Mrs. Olipher or Oliver.
I wish you could visit that place in Shirley on James River, Garden Week - Virginia.

I have phoned several this morn. about this but nobody seems to know whether she is dead or not.

Now back to Carters, you may know that the first one to this country was John, he lived in ~~H~~ Lancaster county Va., was married 5 times, we are supposed to descend from his second wife and Robt. was, I think, from 3d wife. The grave(tomb) of John and 5 wives is in Old Christ Church in Lancaster, Co. I have been there, he and wives emtombed in the Isle of the ~~xxxx~~ Church - I cant put my hands on the data of the tomb today - I must stop I cant write another line.

I believe Miss Cutliff will do this job for you, of course she will never let that Bible out of her hands.

Please do excuse this letter, my hand gets worse instead of better.

Sincerely,

Bessie Peters Britt

I'm delighted with this chart - shall I keep it? You have worked hard.

Col. John I, 1620 was the first to settle Upper Norfolk, the founder of Corotoman, Lancaster Co., Va., member of the House of Burgesses in 1649 from Nansemond, 1754 from Lancaster Co. Va.
Member of the Colonial Council 1657-8. Commander-in-Chief of forces sent against the Rappahannock Indians - Vestryman, both he and his son 1666. They built the first church where Christ Church now stands. Ref. "Bishop Meades Old Churches & Families of Va." I have been to this old church several times and have seen the old tombs, etc. of John C. and his five wives. Our ancester is one of these wives, buried in the isle of the church

THE CARTER LINE - 2

First Carters in America -
Col. John Carter born 1620, died Jan. 10, 1669. He was married five times.
First wife Jane, daughter of Morgan Glenn.
"This record copied from a letter of Mrs. Amelia Cutliff of Albany, Ga. Sept. 24, 1933 Through the kind trust of a dear friend, living in Atlanta, rormerly a Miss Carter, my old neighbor and Michell's own cousin, who sent me the Carter Tree, that has been inherited from generation to generation and I remembered having seen in past years. The Williamsburg line, plainly marked is the first branch from "John Carter", the first of that name, in America, was John II died in 1693, married Eliz. Wormley etc. This John was half brother to Robert, called "King Carter", which no doubt accounts for his favors in public offices, however the two lines do not unite again until the marriage of Anne Carter & Mag. John Nelson and thus their descendants are from both branches of the Carter Tree. It is a mammoth tree, chart about 36x40 in., so finely written the magnifying glass had to be used in reading it. The branches of Robert Carter extend in every direction. This tree was designed and written by R. R. Carter of Shirley and continued from Carter Bible Records (same as yours) by Mr. Robt. Carter of Columbus & his son Mr. Thos. Michelle Carter, the father of my friend, from the descendants of John Carter and Jane Michelle down giving their descendants. I am enclosing you a copy of the branch, not the tree (mercy no, impossible to copy) I am also sending a copy of the Va. Historical So. to put on record and thus untangle the Carter Tangle there.

I am to happy to pass this data on to you and pave your way into Colonial Dames, Immigrants So. etc. "Now on with the march" for you are eligible to everything, with all doubt removed. Many thanks for your invitation for membership in F.F. Va. to Michelle. Hold it open indefinitely; she may be able to accept later, now has a daughter at Agnes Scott and a son ready for college next year, so $25.00 fee has to be classed as a luxury now during the"depression " -

~~I am glad to have the name of Col. Robt Read;~~ what was date of marriage? If you come across that any time, I will be glad as that was the only missing link in that long line from "Royal Ancestors."

Now try to turn your attention to the name, Michel. The name is listed as a settler of the French Huguenot Settlement at Manakin-town, King Wm. Co., Virginia and should be found in the Huguenot Society Richmond, Virginia, as a starting point and may be all the information needed to connect with Thos. Michel.

I got my Fountaine data to join the Huguenot So. of S.C. from its "Historical Collection" (signed) Amelia Cutliff.

I went to Shirley years ago to see the "Carter Tree" but time was too limited to go through it with a magnifying glass.

I do have one volume of Carter material, scattered wills and marriages and etc. I have gone through these and I do not find anything which I can identify as helpful to you.

I might mention the following which I copied several years ago in Brunswick County, Virginia. I do not recall just why I took it at the time as it has been more than 20 years ago. I submit it for such help as it may be.

"Know all men by these presents, that I John Carter of Brunswick County and James Jones of the County of Surry, are held and firmly bound unto our Soverign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, etc., in the sum of fifty pounds current money of Virginia, to be paid to our said Lord the King, his heirs and successors to the paement whereof we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, Sealed with our seals and dated this 3rd, Jan'y 1754.

"The condition of this obligation is such, that whereas there is a marriage suddenly intended to be soleminized between the above bound John Carter and Rebecca Sturat of the Parish of St. Andrew in Brunswick County., Spinster, _____ Now if there is no lawful cause to obstruct said marriage, then this obligation to be void, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

John Carter (Seal)
James Jones (Seal)."

There is really nothing in the above to indicate help to you, except the geographical location, and that cannot mean a great deal. It may however be a lead.

Ray's Index to North Carolina Registers by Hathaway, contains much Carter data, and I believe the Carter's who were in and around Edenton N.C. were from the early Virginia Carters. I have always found it of most value to study the Albemarle Sound Section along with such Counties in Virginia, as Surry, Sussex, Brunswick, Isle of Wight and others.

Dear Mr. Rutherford -

It was indeed a pleasure to receive your letter regarding the Carter family, although I am afraid I am not going to be of any great help to you on the exact point you are seeking.

I presume you have examined such publications as "The Valentine Papers" 4 volumes; North Carolina Historical Registers, by Hathaway, 3 Vols; and other published material.

I do have one volume of Carter material, scattered wills and marriages and etc. I have gone through these and I do not find anything which I can identify as helpful to you.

I have always found it of most value to study the Albemarle Sound Section along with such Counties in Virginia, as Surry, Sussex, Brunswick, Isle of Wight and others. If you have not studied these, it is only a suggestion. I do not have the N.C. Registers in my collection. They are very rare and I have never found a set but once or twice w ich could be purchased, and at the very times I did find them, I did not feel that I could put out the price being asked, which ran extremely high. I still hope to add these three volumes to my collection at some time when I do find a set for sale.

One can go broke very easily indulging too deeply in these rare books although the desire often gets the better of one.

My library contains about1500 volumes, a large portion of which are considered rare. In addition to these published books I have approximately 500 volumes of Misc. typed, or printed leaflets and etc. which I have collected myself over a period of 33 years. All genealogical material, mostly unpublished. These volumes are all 500 and upward of the three hole loose-leaf type and all packed full of material. I have walked hundreds of miles over rocks and rills in rural sections, skinned my knees, been stung by bees, and chased by cows and snakes, to add tombstones and what have you to this collection. It has become known as the "Whitley Collection" and apparently is known from Coast to Coast, if one judges by the mail received seeking information.

It is always a pleasure to be able to furnish the missing link,but even with all I have, I still cannot answer many questions.

I am, as I have said, very sorry not to be able to answer your question, but I just do not have it in my collection.

If you find need of asking me another question, do not hesitate to do so, maybe luck will be with us next time.

Sincerely,

Edythe Whitley

CARTER FAMILY

In spite of extensive searches of MS material at the Society of Genealogists relating to families named Carter no direct evidence bearing on the parentage of Mary Carter, first wife of Henry Woodhouse, has been found. The will of John Carter, to which we referred in our letter of April 12th, of which the following is a brief abstract, is not helpful.

P.C.C. 66 Ridley. John Carter, in the good ship Exchange. To my brother William Carter dwelling in All Souls College in Oxford £7. To Thomas Lewis in the ship Hart £4. To Margaret London dwelling in Smithfeild 20/-. Brother William Carter to be sole executor. 15 Dec. 1628. Francis Stockton, purser, Peter Crosse. Proved 29 July 1629 by William Carter, the brother, executor.

The following was also abstracted in view of the testator's connexion with Virginia.

P.C.C. 128 Cottle. Edward Carter, of Edmonton, c. Middlesex, Esq. To be buried in the parish Church of St Dunstan in the East in London in the Middle Isle under the stone laid for my daughter Anne Place & as near to grave of my former wife Mrs Anne Carter as may be. All my lands in Edmonton & my third part of tenements in Chalfont St Peter, co Bucks, & all other tenements in England, and my plantation in Virginia called Brices Plantation lying on the north side of the Rappahannock River now in possession of my agents & my other plantation in Virginia called Monasto Plantation on north side of Rappahannock River to my son Edward Carter & heirs of his body, remainder to my eldest daughter Elizabeth & her heirs, remainder to my daughter Anne & her heirs, & for want of such heirs to my wife Elizabeth. My wife not to dispose of plantations unless she has urgent occasion to do so. She to be guardian of son Edward and daughters Anne & Elizabeth Carter. My tract or dividend of land in co. of Upper Norfolk in Virginia in Bennetts Creeke on Nansemonds River where I formerly lived & my other estates containing 500 acres & another tract formerly in occupation of Col. Thomas Burbidge & another tract of land in Maryland called Verton to be sold by my executrix for payment of my debts & maintenance of my children. Residue to be put out to advantage for benefit of my two daughters, to be didided equally between them at 21 or marriage. To poor of Edmonton 40/-. To poor of St Dunstan in the East 20/-. My wife Elizabeth Carter to be executrix. 18 Oct. 1682. Edward Madox, Christopher Johnson, Mary x ~~Johnson~~ Jones, Frances x Hoc_ood, Thomas Jackson.

Proved 29 Nov. 1682 by Elizabeth Carter, relict and executrix.

Today I visited the London Guildhall Library, which has been closed owing to Lord Mayoral functions, to have a look at W. J. Pinks' "History of Clerkenwell", 1865. The book is well indexed, which saved a long search, but I am afraid that it is of little use genealogically. The only two references to the name Woodhouse are contained in a series of extracts from the parish registers of the Church of St. James, which, of course, are now superseded by the complete transcript of the early registers printed by the Harleian Society. The two entries are:

Baptised 16 March 1611 Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhouse.
Buried 19 Aug. 1611 Mrs. Frances, dau. of Sir Philip Woodhouse.

There are a few references to Carter, but none earlier than the 18th Century. The earliest refers to Elizabeth Carter (1717-1806) of whom there is an account in the D.N.B. and who lived in Clerkenwell for a time.

The fact that the Woodhouse-Carter marriage took place at St. James, Clerkenwell, probably does not mean that either family was living there at the time. It seems to have been a popular Church for marriages at the time, especially for people whose homes were outside London.

Mary Carter

I have made a very exhaustive search on the above. Henry Woodhouse, son of the Governor of the Bermudas, or at least a Henry Woodhouse married a Mary Carter at St. James Clerkenwell in 1629. A little later he shows up in Virginia I believe with a wife Mary and a daughter for both of whom he obtained land grants. He brought in, I believe, another daughter later. There were numerous Carters in and around Virginia at that time. One of the most important was John Carter who later left Norfolk County and moved over on the James River where he became a very large landowner and a member of the Burgess'. He had 5 wives; one of them is reputed to have been the mother of the family which ended with Dr. James Carter. This point has never been proved however.

I would certainly like to prove that the Mary Carter who married Henry Woodhouse was the same Mary that came to Virginia with him and who may have been a member of the same Carter family. I can supply you with a lot of records in England which may be of some assistance in the search; it probably requires some investigation and perhaps you have methods which you can suggest that you might try.

Let me know what your plan would be and I will send you the records that I have.

We enclose also abstract of the will of Rev. Horatio Woodhouse, proved 1679, which we are sure that you will be glad to have. It is interesting that he had a niece Judith Lowe (was she the daughter of Henry Woodhouse of Linhaven?), in view of the connection between James Carter and Richard Looe or Lowe. The nephew Henry Colt, to whom Horatio Woodhouse left his property at Waxham was really his great-nephew, son of the Lucy Webb whom we mentioned in our letter of March 30th. Lucy was the first wife of Sir William Dutton Colt, Envoy to Hanover, and according to William Hervey's "Visitation of Suffolk", ed. by J. J. Howard, vol. 2, page 36, she was buried at Heilbron in Germany.

Dear Mr Rutherford,

We have been trying to identify Mary Carter, the first wife of Henry Woodhouse of Virginia. We have not been successful but we hope we are on the right track. The enclosed abstract of proceedings in Chancery referring to a James Carter who was engaged in trade with Virginia seemed a promising clue, and we followed it up by examining the will of James Carter proved in the previous year. His description as "of Whitechapel" in the Probate Act Book probably means that he died there soon after his ship returned to the Port of London. He seems to have had no children, but possibly Mary was one of the children of his brother John who are remembered in the will. There is a will of John Carter "in the ship Exchange" in the P.C.C. 1629, and we propose to examine it also.

The Carter search seems to be straightforward, but the name is so common that we frequently find ourselves chasing red herrings. However, we hope that the Hertfordshire family, to which we refer in our notes, will prove to be the right one and that the clue for which we are looking will come to light in the near future.

You will see from our statement that we have now exhausted your credit balance. We shall not incur any considerable expense, such as is involved in searches outside London, on your behalf until you authorise it.

Yours faithfully,

PERRY FAMILY

The mention of kinsmen Richard Perry and John Perry in the will of James Carter, 1628 (P.C.C. 41 Skynner), led us to the valuable collection of Perry material at the Society of Genealogists. It includes abstracts of the wills of all Perrys in the P.C.C. We have copied those which may prove to be useful.

32 Ridley. John Perrey, of St Antholin, London, merchant. To poor of St Edmond without Westgate in Exeter 40/- and of Plymouth 20/-. To Susannah Harrison, daughter of my cousin John Harrison 40/-. To my cousin Mary Halse, widow, 20/-. To my cousin Elizabeth Bourdon £12. To my cousin Ruth White £6. To my cousin Susan Carter £10. To the poor of St Antholin 20/-. To Alice Symons 20/-. My brother Richard Pery to be executor. Witnesses: William Pery, Thomas Burbage. Dated 26 Dec. 1628 at Perye's Point near James City, Virginia. Proved 28 April 1629.

9 Pembroke. Richard Perry, citizen & merchant taylor of (St Antholin) London. One third of my estate to my wife Dunes Perry. One third to my two children unadvanced Peter and Susan, for my son Richard is fully advanced. Out of the testator's third to the poor of St Edmond's Exon and to the poor of Buckland Monachorum, where I was apprenticed, 40/- each. Of the residue two-fifths to my son Richard and three-fifths to my son Peter and my daughter Susan, whom I make executors. 9 Aug. 1648. Proved 11 Jan. 1649-50 by Peter Perry, the son. 23 Oct. 1657 administration to William Whittle, late husband and executor of Susanna Whittle, daughter of testator, Peter Perry having died.

Dunes Perry, of (St Antholin) London, widow. To my son Richard Perry £10, and to his children Mary and Micaiah Perry £5 each. To his other four children 40/- each. Residue to my son Peter and my daughter Susan Perry, whom I make executors. 7 Dec. 1653. Proved 15 Feb. 1653-4 by the executors.

The Registers of St Antholin, Budge Row, London, which contain many references to the Perry family, have been printed by the Harleian Society.

There is an account of this family in V.L. Oliver's "History of Antigua", Vol.3, pages 30 and following. It begins with Richard Perry, of Newhaven, New England, the son of the above Richard and Dunes Perry.

Perry v. Lowe 2 July 1628.

Richard Perrye, of London, merchant, & Bryan Harrison, of Wapping, mariner, & Susan his wife, late wife of James Carter. Perry & Carter were partners in certain merchandise, which they sent to Virginia in the "Anne" of London, Carter being Master. He feeling himself like to die, employed Richard Lowe in Virginia to collect his debts and send them to London. Lowe refuses to give an account.

Will of James Carter, P.C.C. 41 Skynner

James Carter (of St Mary Matfellon alias Whitechapel in the Probate Act Book, but no place in the will). One black cloak and a sealed ring to my brother John Carter, and £30 to be divided equally amongst his children. £10 to William Symons children. To my cosen Richard Perry & his wife and to William White & his wife £5 each for a ring. To my wife's brothers and sisters 40/- each for a ring. To Mr Sedgwicke 40/- in gould and 40/- to the poor of that parish. 50 acres of land which I bought of my Ladie Dales in Shurley Hundred Island unto the parish of which Mr Proby is minister to be a place of residency for him and for such as shall succeed him in that parish. My wife Susanna Carter to be sole executrix. Mr Nathaniel Causy & Richard Looe to have the oversight of shipping my goods in the Upland and Richard Looe for the Lowland, and for their pains I give them whatsoever they will demand. God sending the ship safe home to her port I intreat my kinsmen Richard Perry & John Perry to have the oversight of such goods of mine as there come home in the ship & to assist my wief, & I give them £30, which together with the rest of my legacies shall be paid four months after the goods shall be sold. To my servant James Ostin one year of his time. 5 Sep. 1626. Witnesses: Richard Lowe, Richard Clifton, Greavell Doly, clerke.

Proved 11 April 1627 by Susanna Carter, the relict, sole executrix.
